Community Service Project*

In order to receive funding through this grant, the football team is required to serve the community through a volunteer project that benefits others.

Examples of eligible projects include serving a meal to the hungry/homeless, picking up trash, helping to build a home for a low income family, etc.

Please explain:

- What organization/program the team will serve
- Include how many hours the team will spend at the organization/program
- The activity to be done within that organization/program

Community service projects will need to be completed by October 31, 2024. You will need to submit photos of the project in your final report. Community service projects not completed will disqualify the school from being allowed to receive 2024-2025 grant funds.

Electronic Signature

Unless noted, grant awards will be made to your high school through the ASD Ed Center finance with instructions to be used for football/flag football program. Grant awards may be made to an eligible nonprofit organization (must be 501C3) like booster club or PTA.
