

2024 GCI Suicide Prevention Grant

Alaska Community Foundation

Grant Information

The Alaska Community Foundation, in partnership with GCI, is proud to offer the GCI Suicide Prevention Grant Program, which will fund projects and organizations whose goal is to reduce the rates of suicide in Alaska and promote mental wellness through strengthened community and personal connections.

Application information is outlined in the Grant Guidelines. If you have questions please call The Alaska Community Foundation at (907) 334-6700.

If your organization would like to have a draft review of your application, complete and save your application, but do not submit. Please email The Alaska Community Foundation at least two (2) weeks prior to the deadline at grants@alaskacf.org requesting a review.

Priority will be given to organizations that:

- Empower Alaskans to work together to promote community wellness.
- Demonstrate measurable results, accountability, cultural sensitivity, and unify communities.
- Will impact communities that might not have easy access to suicide prevention support programs.
- Are rural organizations, meaning they work in communities not accessible by the road system and/or the marine highway system.

This could look like (this is not an exhaustive list):

- Addressing generational trauma
- Veteran connectedness
- Means restriction / Gun safety
- Increased connectivity to treatment services

- Youth coalitions
- Primary prevention
- Support for those already doing this work in communities
- Building on past successes
- Support of needs assessments
- Community mobilization
- High-risk populations
